2014 Employee Awards and Recognition
Publications and Presentations

• Scott Adamson and student Philip Monk, OnCore
• Cammen Chan, All-in-One Electronics Guide and a Stocks Dividend Tracker mobile app
• Diane Elarde, Chicken Soup for the Soul: Miraculous Messages from Heaven
• Zabioullah A. Eltezam, Global Science and Technology Forum Journal on Agricultural Engineering
• Miguel Fernandez, Sloan Consortium’s 7th Annual International Symposium on Emerging Technologies for Online Learning
• Patrick Finn, TROP and The McNeese Review
• Valerie Foster, The Risk of Sorrow: Conversations with Holocaust Survivor, Helen Handler
• David Muñoz, Tejiendo telarañas (Weaving webs)
• Paul Petrequin and Roy Scheisser, Diversity & Democracy, Association of American Colleges and Universities Journal
• Zoila G. Tovar-Blank, Handbook of Multicultural Psychology
• Karen Wellner, Embryo Project Encyclopedia and Science and Education: Thematic Journal Issue
Scott Adamson and student Philip Monk had the article “Horizontal Transformations of Functions: A Student’s Exploration,” published in the fall 2013 issue of OnCore, a publication of the Arizona Association of Teachers of Mathematics, an affiliate of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics.

Miguel Fernandez presented “Veteran Students in the Online Classroom” at the Sloan Consortium’s 7th Annual International Symposium on Emerging Technologies for Online Learning on April, 11 2014.

Valerie Foster published “The Risk of Sorrow: Conversations with Holocaust Survivor, Helen Handler,” by Albion-Andalus Books (Boulder, CO). The book was featured at an event sponsored by the East Valley Jewish Community Center at Chandler Center for the Arts on April 8.

David Alberto Muñoz published his tenth book, a new collection of shorts stories written in Spanish. It is called: Tejiendo telarañas (Weaving webs), with short stories about the U.S.-Mexican border, families, religion and erotic tales. The introduction was written by Miguel Méndez just before he passed away.

Paul Petrequin and Roy Scheisser’s article, “Unnatural Disaster Day: Improving Access to Global Learning and Civic Engagement”, was published in the Association of American Colleges and Universities journal, Diversity & Democracy, Spring 2013, Vol. 16, No. 2. To read the complete article click here.

Karen Wellner had three articles published:

