

Estimated Expenses for Chandler-Gilbert Community College

The approximate cost of one academic year of study (two semesters, approximately 10 months) at Chandler-Gilbert Community College (CGCC) is:

Out of state tuition and fees:	$ 8010*
Health insurance, school supplies & textbook expenses:	$ 2200
Living expenses (off campus):	$ 13500
Total:	$ 23,710

I understand that I must have at least this amount of funding available to me.

Additional funding required for dependents:

First dependent -----	$ 5,000
Each additional dependent-----	$ 2,500

*The actual tuition and fee amount is based upon a full time schedule of 12 credits per semester. Therefore, the cost of tuition and fees for one academic year would be $7,824 (tuition), plus estimated fees for two semesters.

This amount is based on the consideration that some textbooks will need to be purchased during the period of study. Other options may be available including materials provided by instructors, and/or the option to rent some textbooks. Therefore, the actual amount may be higher or lower than the estimated cost above. Health insurance is mandatory and will be added each semester.

Housing & Living expenses will vary greatly depending on living preferences, location and other considerations. The $13,500 is intended to be a rough estimate of costs and not a projected actual cost. Living expenses typically include: rent, utilities, transportation, food and incidental expenses. For shared housing, the cost can be lower if accommodations are shared with one roommate or more or if free accommodations are provided by family or a relative(s). Supplemental information on estimated housing and living expenses near each campus can be provided.
